

Our Union With Christ

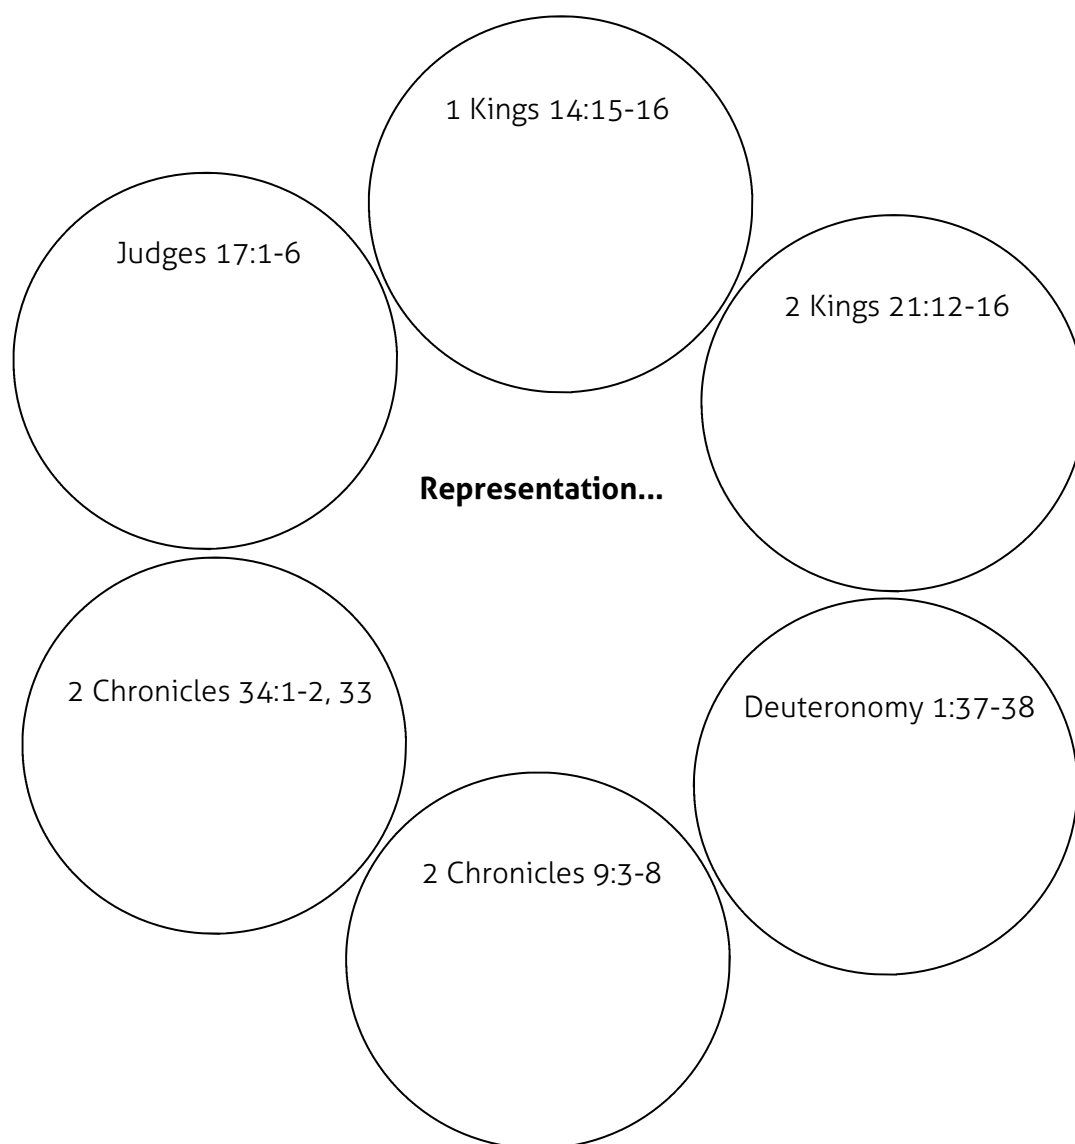

Special 'Great Weekender' Edition

On Friday night the 'Great Weekender' begins! On Saturday and Sunday morning, Bill Colyer will be giving talks on 'Our Union with Christ'. Bill is on staff with 'the Australian Fellowship of Evangelical Students' and works at QUT. In preparation, let's start our thinking on this topic, with this study that Bill has produced.

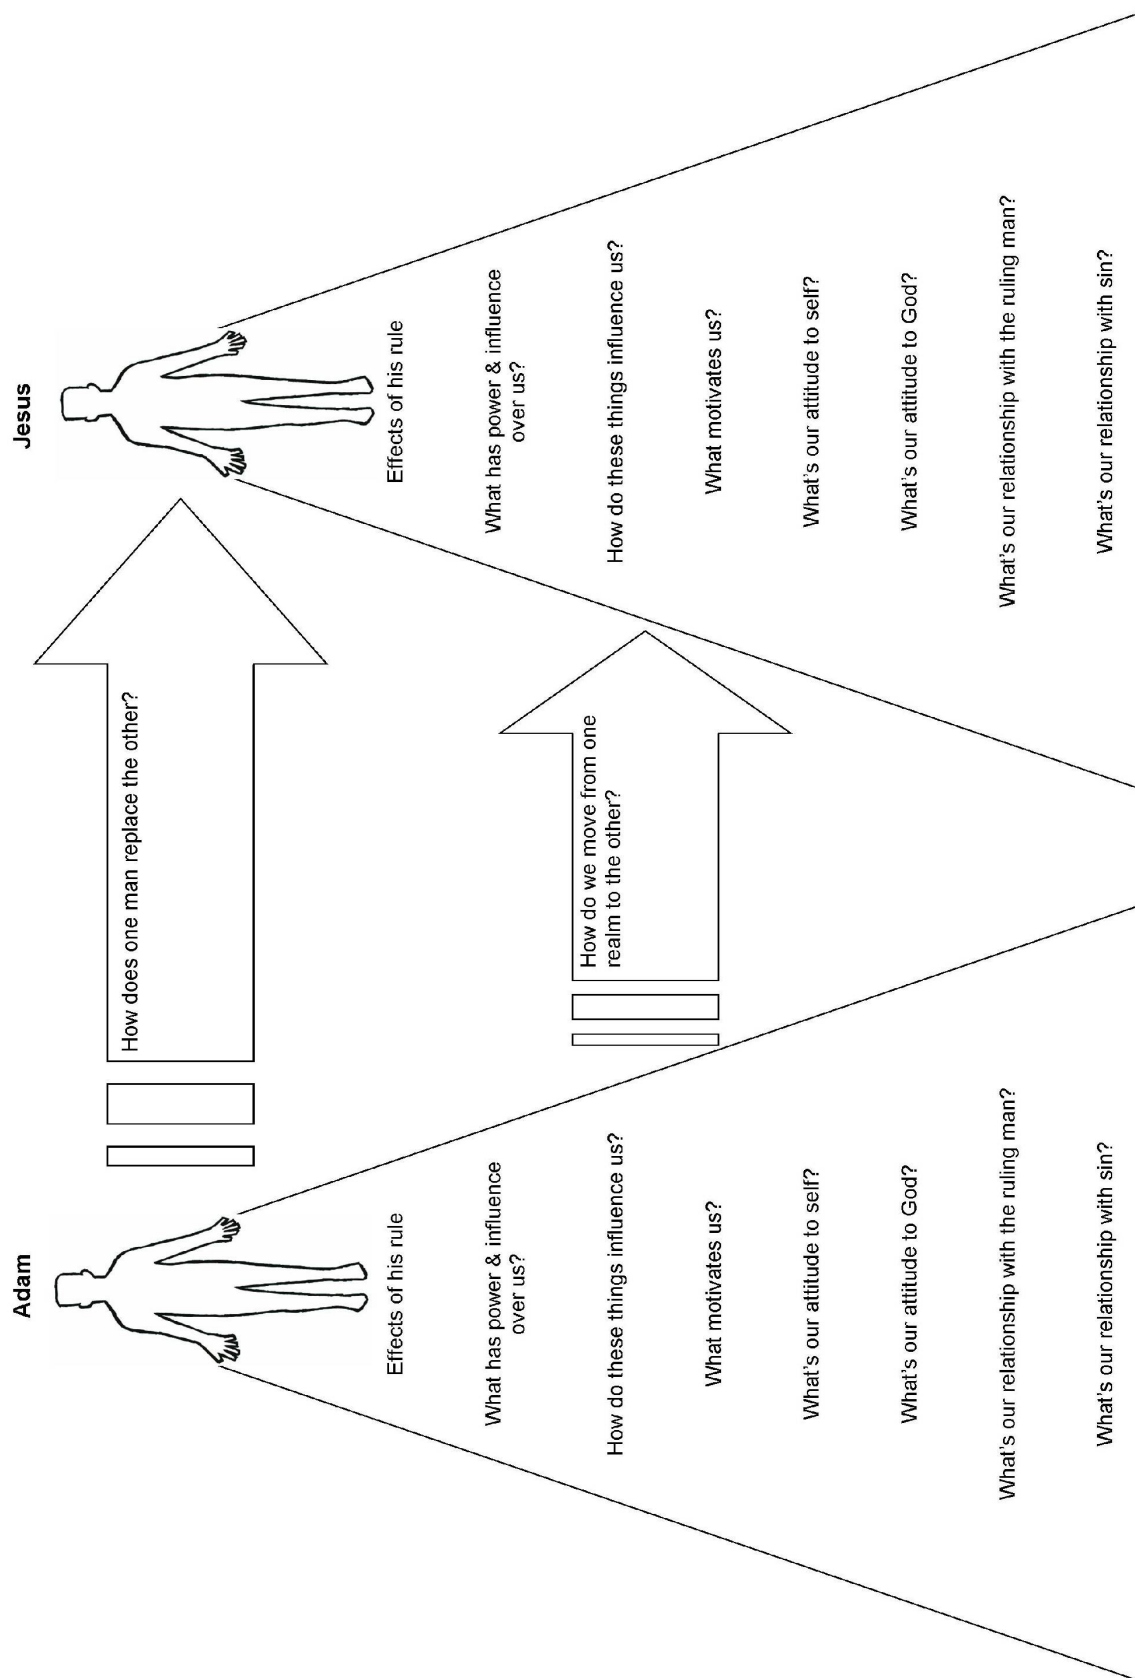

Representation and Rule

The Bible has ideas about representation – when it's right for someone to act on behalf of another. We see this most importantly in Jesus. But before we get to Jesus, the Old Testament has quite a bit to say on the subject.

Look up the verses below. How does the representative affect the people? Once you've looked at all the passages, try to come up with a summary of the way representation works.

We can see that the idea of a representative and their influence on the people is important in the Old Testament. What's true in the Old is also true in the New.... Now read Romans 5:12-6:23. The diagram compares two rulers and their effects on humanity. Fill out all the comparisons Adam and Jesus, then think about the questions in the arrows.

What similarities do you see between the Adam and Jesus?

What are the most striking contrasts between life under the two men?

Where have you seen these changes personally?

See you on the weekend! Registration is from 7pm on Friday Night. Please have dinner before you arrive. For those that can't make it to all the camp, please still join us for church on Sunday morning. Start time on Sunday is 9am.
